Ronald Griffith Williams

Ronald Griffith Williams is a multi-faceted, hands-on IT Professional with over three decades of combined experience in the areas of Enterprise Data Center Operations, Technical Support (Level 1/2/3/4), Systems Engineering, Systems Administration, IT Management, Client Support / Help Desk Management, Project Management, Adjunct Professorship via online Learning Management Systems (LMS), Adult Continuing Education instruction, Curriculum Development, IT Consulting, and Business Ownership. This includes Fortune 50 Corporations, Non-Profits, University / College, Small-to-Medium Size Businesses (SMB), High School, Elementary Institutions, and home environments.

Ron has held positions as IT Data Center Operations Specialist, Technical Support (Level 1/2/3/4), Systems Engineer, Systems Analyst, Systems Administrator, Technical Advisor, IT Manager and Supervisor, Help Desk Supervisor, Help Desk Specialist, IT Consultant, Adjunct Professor, Curriculum Developer, Adult Continuing Education Instructor, CompTIA Instructor, and Business Owner.

Ron's credentials include an M.S. degree in Internet Technology / Cybersecurity from Pace University, a B.S. degree in Professional Computer Studies from Pace University, and an A.A.S. degree in Data Processing / Computer Science from Columbia-Greene Community College.

Additionally, Ron holds CompTIA Security+, Network+, and A+ professional IT certifications and multiple IBM Digital Badges

Ron presently holds multiple positions: IT Data Center Operations Specialist for IBM, Adjunct Professor for Pace University's Seidenberg School of CSIS, Dyson College of Arts & Sciences, NACTEL, & Pace Online, and Business Owner / IT Consultant for his computer repair and IT consulting business:

Ron presently resides in Pleasant Valley, NY, Dutchess County.